

About UniEel

UniEel is a media entertainment website. We offer a platform which provides anyone with the opportunity to get their content reaching thousands of users, day after day! You can write about anything you like!

Summary

We usually recruit student writers! This is an opportunity to be the voice of your University – writing about news and stories emanating from your institution. You will also be able to make lists (e.g. 10 things that happens... [Related to your University]). There will also be the chance to help run a social media page dedicated to your institution. But if you aren't a student, no problem – we have a plethora of other areas of our website you can contribute to!

Requirements

We believe anyone can make a contribution to our site! Therefore, there are simply no requirements!

Remuneration

Unfortunately, this is a voluntary position, with no remuneration involved. While this may seem disappointing, please see the next paragraph, which will show you what you can gain from this!

What We Can Offer!

This will be an excellent chance to gain professional experience – without having to do any travelling. You can write from your own room! Every article will be attributed to you, and there is very little bureaucracy – what you write won't be bounced around from editor-to-editor, we keep things streamlined! You will be able to include your social media links within each article you write, perhaps you can build up a cult following! This is also a chance to improve your writing skills. And writing about the news of your University should both be interesting and rewarding! Above all, there is no obligation whatsoever to write a certain amount. You can write as and when you please. Finally, and this is something we feel very strongly about – we will always happily provide an employment reference whenever you require one in the future.

To Apply

Please send your CV to unieelteam@gmail.com – we'll be in touch from there! Feel free to send any questions you have to the same email address and a member of our team will contact you!

If this isn't for you...

No problem, we wish you the very best. If you ever change your mind, we'll happily add you to our network!
